

МАРИША КАЗАКОВА

АКАБАБАГА

ABOUT THE ARTIST:

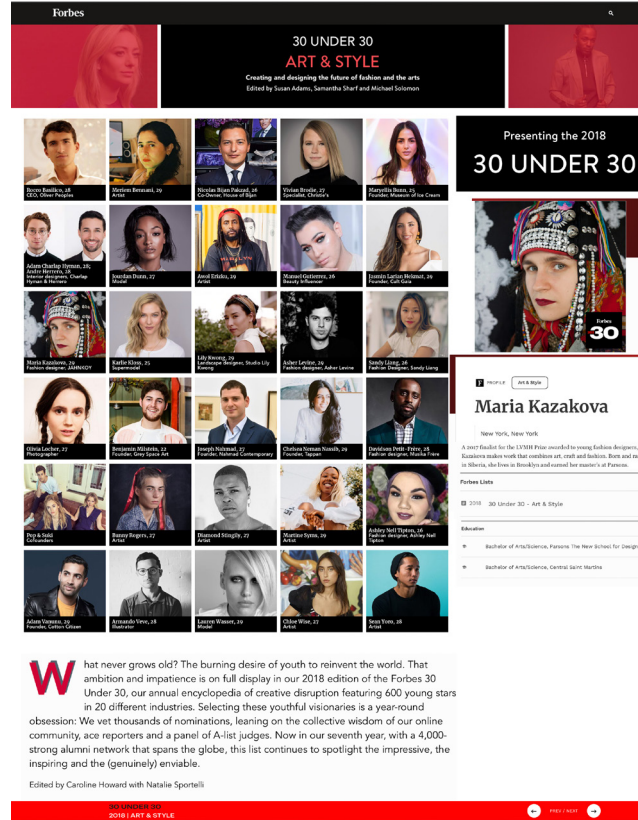

MARUSYA KAZAKOVA a.k.a. BABAЯGA is a multidimensional artist, based in New York, US. Her artistic practice spreads across the disciplines of Fashion, Visual, Mystical & Healing Arts. Being born in Siberia, Russia, Marusya moved across the Globe to pursue Fashion Design education. As a result of which, she created craftivist project JAHNKOY, that has been shown globally and has acquired a major attention from the fashion industry, with the support of it's key leaders, such as LVMH Prize (2017) and CFDA (2017-2019). The artist had a long term collaboration with PUMA (2017-2021) and was nominated to Forbes "30 under 30" in Art & Style (2018) and Esquire "12 Apostles" in Art Categories (2021). Marusya has held solo-exhibition at the Fashion Institute of Technology (New York) and at the Museum of Decorative Arts (Moscow).

Following such success, Marusya faced a very challenging period in her life, which she calls "The dark night of the Soul". Managed to go through it, the artist decided to step out of the JAHNKOY brand and to continue her solo artistic practice. As well as to follow her true calling and step into her destined path - the path of the Shaman or rather Shamanka (as women Shamans are called in Russian language). Marusya took on a new name BABAЯGA [Baba Yaga] and chose to dedicate her life to the work of Spirit.

Marusya has chosen to devote her presence on Earth to assist other Souls on their own transformational journeys towards balance, peace, beauty and healing. To assist others on their own unique paths of self-discovery and true awakening. As an intuitive Marusya channels the messages from the Higher Realms to assist those who are looking for guidance. She provides Energy Healing Sessions, merging ancient and modern practices, to restore natural state of flow, to bring balance and healing to the individuals. Marusya crafts unique Artifacts, to assist them in such processes. She holds guided transformational programs, as well as group sessions and masterclasses.

In her artistic practice, Marusya continues to work on a conceptual project base, creating one-of-a-kind Paintings, Adornment and Performances.

The artist was selected in “Final 8” of LVMH Prize (2017), as well as was listed in Forbes “30 under 30” in «Art & Style» (2018) and chosen, as one of the “12 Apostles” of Esquire in Art Category (2021). Marusya showcased 2 of her projects at the CFDA Emerging Designer Platform (2017, 2018) and was part of CFDA & Accessories Council Elaine’s Gold Launch Pad program(2018). Artist’s work were presented at Bergdorf Goodman Men’s department with performance and window displays, as well as floor installation (New York, 2017), at Tomorrow Showroom (Paris, 2019). She exhibited her work as part of the group art shows «Wavelength 1» (New York, 2017) and «Wavelength 2» (Beijing, 2017). Kazakova had solo-exhibitions at the Museum of Decorative Arts (Moscow, 2018) and the Fashion Institute of Technology (New York, 2019).
